COLLAB ALERT

Peter D'Ascoli + FCML

Designed by Peter D'Ascoli for FCML, Jamavar collection of ceramic tiles is inspired by the famous paisley shawls from Kashmir. The Delhi-based international fabric designer has captured the intricacy and drama of the original embroidered fabrics that set the style at the Mughal court and led European fashion in the 18th and 19th centuries. The collection features borders and all-over designs, ideal for both floors and wall cladding, in three shades — black, natural and shahtoosh. What's your pick? dascoli.co, fcmlindia.com
